

BRUTALITY OF REDS AROUSES FURY OF YANKS

Americans Withdraw From Kadish, but Regain
Town Later.

ALLIED LINE ADVANCED

More Evidence of Bolshevik Atrocities Discovered; Artillery Now Active.

By the Associated Press.

WITH THE ALLIED ARMY OF THE Dnieper, Jan. 5 (delayed).—American troops, fighting desperately near Kadish, have driven back Bolshevik troops which made an advance there. The Bolsheviks also launched attacks on the Odesa sector and elsewhere along the front. The Americans came into battle along the Petrograd road and in the frozen swamps that border it. The battle was fought in snow from two to four feet in depth.

American forces captured Kadish last Monday after a display of gallantry that evidenced the admiration of the allied commanders. Special care has been taken of the American wounded, and the body of an American officer was taken back two miles by sledges and then sent to America for treatment. There were some casualties on Monday, but they were small in comparison to those inflicted upon the enemy.

Hold New Positions Firmly.

On Tuesday the Bolsheviks opened a series of attacks from three and six inch guns and launched a counter attack against the buildings held by the Americans.
So far the American artillery fire has been effective. The Bolsheviks were temporarily driven from the village. The line, however, was not taken back. The Americans are now holding the line firmly. The enemy did not occupy Kadish because the barrage fire from the American guns made the place untenable.
While falling on the frozen ground around their zones of destruction they as far as they would under normal conditions.

Enemy Attack Repulsed.

The Petrograd road leads southward to Plesetskaya, a large village on the Volodarska railway, which is the enemy's main operations at the Kadish and Odesa fronts.

Allied positions on the Odesa front near the village of Plesetskaya were attacked by the enemy yesterday. The attack was centered on a Russian naval brigade, which held its positions, inflicting heavy losses without apparently retreating. On the Petrograd front the Bolsheviks for the last three days have kept up a strong artillery fire and have sought an armored train into the line. Little result has been achieved to the allied positions. On the other hand an allied shell struck an enemy barracks, doing great damage.

In this sector allied forces advanced on snowshoes over soft snow a few days ago. Beneath the snow was an un-frozen swamp and the men often sank up to the waist in their waists in spite of their Arctic footgear. The battle with the elements makes the fighting here of the utmost difficulty.

Further evidence that the Bolsheviks are mutilating allied wounded and dead bodies has been received today in a report from Lieut-Col. Corbely, who was in command of American forces in the vicinity of Shumskaya on November 29.
Americans were the victims, according to the report. A patrol of sixty American soldiers and two officers was surrounded early on November 29 by a force of about 300 Bolsheviks. Seven Americans were killed and seven others were missing after the fight. Following is the report of Lieut-Col. Corbely as to condition of the bodies found after the engagement, the names of the men being omitted:

No. 1—Lieutenant, head smashed with axe.
No. 2—Corporal, head so smashed with axe that only parts of the face remained.
No. 3—Corporal, head smashed in with axe and with an iron bar broken by blows, apparently from blunt side of axe.
No. 4—Private, head smashed with
axe.

No. 5—Private, head smashed and throat cut open, apparently with axe.

Americans Are Fighting Mad.

In the meantime the Bolsheviks are carrying on propaganda endeavoring to prove they treat prisoners kindly. Late last week an enemy patrol in the vicinity of Kadish shot across No Man's Land and they had the bodies of two American officers sent forward to exchange.
The Americans went forward to in-terrogate, and at a safe distance from the American troops the Bolsheviks produced two men, one an American and the other a Scotchman. Instead of offering them for exchange, they said they would "fatten and treat kindly" the Americans or Scotchmen who shot them. Then they whisked the prisoners back into the woods.

The discovery of mutilated bodies at Shumskaya has brought a new wave of fury to the Americans, who are now fighting with a new determination.

Today the fighting about Kadish apparently has ceased, except for sporadic artillery action. The headquarters report said the situation is unchanged in all sectors.

A new government has been formed at Belgrade by representatives of all Yugoslavia, Serbia, Montenegro, Bosnia, Herzegovina, Macedonia, Croatia, and Slovenia. The Entente Powers and other governments, according to the Belgrade Despatch, have been informed that the Kingdom of Serbia is the United Serbian-Croatian-Slovene Kingdom.

Socialists Urged to Back Wilson.

Charles Edward Russell and William Lusk, leading delegates of the Social Democratic League of America to the International Conference, January 20, at Zurich, Switzerland, called to European socialists yesterday asking them to include their support of President Wilson at the forthcoming peace conference.
The message says the democratic Socialist and anti-imperialist and asserts that their position in this respect is identical with that of President Wilson.

SCENTS DANGER OF BOLSHEVISM GAINS

London "Times" Believes Intervention Necessary.

Special Cable Despatch to The Sun from the London Times Service.

LONDON, Jan. 5.—The Times prints a significant editorial entitled "Bolshevism Imminent," saying:
"Of all the dangers of the peace conference none is quite so urgent as that of our relations with the new imperialism, Russian Bolshevism, and in none is the danger so obvious and so injurious to the well being of our friends. An idea is prevalent in this country and doubtless elsewhere, however, that pestilent Bolshevism is a mere passing fancy, the sole sufferers and we should be well advised not to meet its troubles. Just as the Germans before the war used to say that the Bolsheviks were an excessive of the imagination, so the Americans are beginning to say that the Russians are a very serious danger. It is matured it would deprive Eastern Europe of the advantages of peace for the moment and American troops are being sent to the aid of the Bolsheviks.
The last but one of Mr. Wilson's fourteen points is that an independent Polish State should be erected, whose political and economic independence is guaranteed by an international covenant."

"If the Bolsheviks have their way," it is pointed out in the article, "they will merely have exchanged German imperialism for Bolshevikism and the last State will be worse than the first, for, whereas German imperialism, at least in its early stages, did not seek to subvert the political order, this subversion is the whole object of the new Russian imperialism and all protests against interfering in internal affairs in Russia are beside the mark." In resisting the campaign of the Russian Bolsheviks we would be actuated by precisely the same motives as we are in resisting the campaign of the German Kaiserism, but in order to save the world from falling a victim to the Russian Bolsheviks, we must be now come to a conflict with Bolshevism in Russia it is not because we presume to dictate what form of Government shall be established in Russia, but because it has become an imperialist, aggressive force, subversive of liberty and of the ideals for a just peace."
